

IMAM IBNE QAY'AM AND HIS REFARMATIVE MOVEMENT

MUHAMMAD SIDDIQ

Department of Arabic, Islamic Studies and Research, Gomal University, D.I. Khan.

ABSTRACT

Imam Ibne Qay'am was a great scholar of Ilm E-Hadise. He was a man of immense repute for, he was a unique learned man in the science of Jurisprudence, Nahave & an accepted interpreter of Tasavuf. He had written a number of books and attained undying fame dint of his knowledge of Jurisprudence. He initiated a movement of rectification. He treated all wrong/ill-based ideologies with the Quranic verdicts and Sunnah: Through his this movement he aimed to propagate and teach Islamic philosophy. Ibne Qay'am was a strong advocate of modern social ideology. He devised a new method of discussion of religious matter. Ibne Qay'am was liberal researcher and reformer. Being a researcher he obliterated the deep state of inertia on the thinking of the Muslim. He following Ibne Tamiya eradicated anti Islamic things. Paramount objective of his movement of rectification was to make the Muslim bound to follow strictly the Quran and Sunnah and to bring a break through in their thinking. So that Muslim may understand the real spirit of Islam. He also liberated and purified Islamic doctrines from false notions and erroneous beliefs. He modifies some basic tenents also.